CUSTOM HOMES

CRAFTING HOMES, BUILDING LEGACIES

At Urban Brix we believe that building a home should be an exciting and collaborative journey. Our partners are committed to quality, integrity and passion. Their focus is on crafting custom homes that reflect your unique vision and lifestyle while embracing urban redensification to enhance the community.

CLEAR COMMUNICATION, EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

We understand that a custom home is one of the most personal and significant investments you'll make. That's why communication is at the heart of everything we do. From the first consultation to the final walk-through, we ensure you're always informed and engaged. Our transparent communication approach builds trust and ensures that your ideas are heard and realized.

A PROCESS DESIGNED FOR YOU

Building a home should be as seamless and stress-free as possible. Our tried-and-true process guides you through each phase, from the initial design to the final finishing touches. We tailor the process to your needs and timeline, ensuring every detail is meticulously planned and executed. Our services build upon your preferences for mature communities with access to our core, fostering a sense of connectivity and accessibility.

SYSTEMS THAT WORK

We've honed our systems to ensure efficiency and quality at every stage. From our project management tools to our collaborative design platforms, our systems are designed to keep the project moving smoothly while giving you full visibility into every aspect of your home's development.

EXCEPTIONAL TRADE PARTNERS

Behind every custom home is a team of skilled craftspeople and trade partners who share our commitment to excellence. We've built strong relationships with trusted professionals in every trade, ensuring that only the highest standards of craftsmanship go into your home.

UNCOMPROMISING QUALITY

Quality is our cornerstone. We go above and beyond to source the finest materials and employ the best construction practices. Every detail of your home is built with care, precision, and a dedication to longevity while integrating sustainable building practices to reduce environmental impact. We don't just meet industry standards—we exceed them.

With decades of combined experience in the industry, our team brings a wealth of knowledge to every project. Whether it's navigating complex zoning regulations or making design decisions that optimize your home's value, you can count on us to guide you with expertise and confidence.

ALIGNED EXPECTATIONS

We believe in setting clear expectations from the start. Through open dialogue and detailed planning, we ensure that we're always aligned with your vision. From budget and timelines to design preferences, our goal is to deliver a home that meets your expectations and surpasses them.
